ПР11. Participating in a research conference. Forms of participation in scientific conferences.

Exercise 1. Read the following five extracts and then write which form (or forms) of communication (an academic journal, a popular science magazine, a conference, a popular science book, an online forum or science blog, a newspaper) each one comes from.

1) ... more people were pain-free when using the handheld device than those who had used an identical dummy device. Although the study by Lipton et al. (2010) has reliable results, there are some points to consider when putting these findings into context. Importantly, the results will need to be verified in larger trials that directly compare ...

2) Tea and coffee drinkers have a lower risk of developing type 2 diabetes, a large body of evidence shows. And the protection may not be down to caffeine since decaf coffee has the greatest effect, say researchers in Archives of Internal Medicine. They looked at...

3) ... can be rapidly generated by lentivirus-mediated transgenesis. RNAi also holds great promise as a novel therapeutic approach. This report provides an insight into the current gene silencing techniques in mammalian systems.

4) Hi! Has anyone had any experiences with nanoparticles sticking to glassware :-(? If so, does anyone know if there's a suitable silylation protocol to pre-treat the glassware to do something about this annoying non-specific adsorption? Thanks!

5) Animal and in vitro studies suggest that aspirin may inhibit breast cancer metastasis. We studied whether aspirin use among women with breast cancer decreased their risk of death from breast cancer. This was a prospective observational study based on ...
